

Brenda Curtwright, Ph.D., CCC-SLP

Speech-Language Pathologist, Silver Child Development Center
Pragmatics & Social Skills Clinic

Contacts:

- University of South Florida, Silver Child Development Center, 12901 Bruce B. Downs Blvd., MDC 102, Tampa FL 33612
- Telephone: 813-974-8067 – Fax: 813-974-1130
- E-mail: bcurtwri@health.usf.edu

Clinical Specializations:

- Assessment and treatment of pragmatics and social skills, in groups, individually, and in school setting, with the following clinical diagnosis and/or characteristics:

Anxiety
Asperger's Syndrome
Attention Deficit-Hyperactivity Disorder
Auditory Processing Disorder
Tourette's Syndrome
Co-existing Disorders

- Consultation and collaboration with schools and agencies to assess and make recommendations to improve student pragmatic and social skills functioning.
- Consultation and collaboration with parents and caretakers to provide training to improve pragmatic and social skills functioning in children.
- Evaluation and treatment of related communication disorders (e.g. articulation, language, and auditory processing skill deficits).

Academic Background and Distinctions

Brenda Curtwright is a graduate of the University of South Florida's undergraduate and graduate program in speech-language pathology. Dr. Curtwright also received her doctoral degree in curriculum and instruction with a specialization in special education from the University of South Florida. Dr. Curtwright holds a Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language Hearing Association and is certified to practice as a Speech-Language Pathologist in the state of Florida. Dr. Curtwright is an active member of the American Speech-Language Hearing Association and the Council for Exceptional Children.
