

ERC Student Association Meeting
January 27, 2010, 5:00- 6:00 pm, Room 2003
Agenda

(I) Introductions

- (A) Sophia Debroux, President, will introduce other student members of ERC student advisory committee: Keith Proctor and Rachel Williams (OHM) Adam Marty (IH), Steffanie Wickham (OS) Jeremy Bauer (OHP) and Coordinator, Ellen Kent
- (B) Students and faculty attending meeting introduce themselves
- (C) Dr. Bernard can review the benefits of student involvement in the ERC to both the individual students and to the ERC as a Center

(II) Purpose/Function/Mission of the ERC Student Association - Sophia

- (A) ERC student association will provide opportunities for ERC students from all of the 5 ERC academic training programs to interact with each other in social and intellectual formats
- (B) Types of student involvement
 - (1) Interdisciplinary scholarly events
 - (2) Recruitment and outreach presentations to student groups
 - (3) Writing short articles for on line ERC newsletter
 - (4) Social events
- (C) Please share your visions – discussion and by list serve

(III) HOW you can be involved and WHEN See website <http://health.usf.edu/publichealth/erc/current.htm>

- (A) Opportunities for involvement in interdisciplinary scholarly events
 - (1) USF Health Research Day (February 19)
 - (2) Event with Dr. Chen (March 18-19)
- (B) Opportunities for participation in upcoming teaching events: Ellen will explain opportunities for recruitment to College students and outreach to HS students, methods for signing up, rewards system. (Page 2)
- (C) Opportunities for contributing to on line ERC newsletter
- (D) Social events: Possibilities open for discussion: picnic before class – April 14 (Steffanie and Nicole)
- (E) You can still contribute to the student booklet – forms available

(IV) BENEFITS OF INVOLVEMENT IN ERC STUDENT ASSOCIATION!

- Relax, have fun and make new friends
- Mentor college undergraduates and high school students
- You can explore new areas of research and practice, as well as career opportunities within occupational health and safety, that you previously may not have been aware of
- Meet and network with faculty and potential employers
- Earn special recognition from ERC faculty
- Build an impressive resume

ERC recruitment talks and tours: Brief presentation by Ellen Kent

Incentives for participation:

Special letter of recommendation from Dr. Bernard when student graduates from ERC academic program (Ellen will provide Dr. Bernard with the numbers of recruitment events that the student participated in)

You will be recognized in other ways, including the COPH awards ceremony during NPHW, ERC student website listing of ambassadors, etc.)

Sign up: ERC students can sign up for events on list below, they will also be listed on ERC current student website

Before presentation:

Ellen sets up talk with undergrad student organization, etc.

ERC student asked to review PPT before hand

Ellen organizes handouts

Presentation: Ellen goes with ERC student and provides handouts, give outs demo items, takes care of logistics of PPT Set up

After Presentation:

(Immediately after event) ERC student and Ellen review what went best & what can be improved

(Day after event) Ellen writes thank you note to Undergrad organization leader

(Day after event) Ellen writes thank you note to ERC Student, copies in Dr. Bernard

(Day after event) Ellen records ERC Student's visit on chart below

Spring Semester 2010

Date, Time	Group/event	Names of volunteers	Outcomes
Wednesday, Jan. 20 th	Presentation to AED (Alpha Epsilon Delta – premed/pre health professions honors society)	Rachel Williams, Ellen Kent	Excellent reception, 30 students. some students signed up for tours
Friday, Jan 22 nd 2-4 pm	Tour of ERC, CON and COM labs	Ellen, Adam Marty, Dr. Cha, Dr. Burns	7 students – one students is with Undergraduate Research Board and has helped to set up tour for Feb 26
Th., Feb 11 th 5-6 pm	Presentation at Univ. Tampa	Dr. Bernard only	15 students – Ellen will continue to follow up with Mark Colvenbach & Rebecca Olsen & invite to April 9 events
Th., Feb. 25 7 pm	Pre PT group Description and prevention of occupational injuries that PT's may encounter	Ellen & 2 students (1) Patrick Whitney (2) Keith Proctor	20 students Excellent reception Ellen will invite students to future ERC & COPH events
Friday, Feb 26, 2-4 pm	Tour for Undergraduate Research Board at USF student members	Ellen, Adam Marty, Dr. Cha Students in labs: (1) Patrick Rodriguez	10 students - excellent!
March 25 th 4-5 pm	Presentation to Honors College	Dr. Bernard only
March 29-April 1	Presentations at Wiregrass Ranch HS	(1) Steffanie/ Nicole/ (April 19 or 26) (2) Dr. Arden Andersen (flight surgeon) and Dr. Liza Eden Giammaria 4/1
March 30 th	Health Careers Expo	Ellen Kent , Patrick Rodriguez
March 31 st 5 pm Marshall center	Premed AMSA	Ellen & Rachel (OHM) and Mike Henderson (IH)
April 9 th 2-4 pm	Tour of ERC, CON and COM labs as part of NPHW recruitment events	Ellen, Adam Marty, Dr. Cha, Dr. Burns Need students in labs: (1) Amanda Pease (2) (3)
April 23 rd 1030 am – 12 pm	Access Day – High School students at USF Health	Patrick Rodriguez, Ellen Kent	