

Dr. John Curran

Associate Vice President and Senior Executive Associate Dean for Faculty and Academic Affairs

Provides supervision of faculty affairs for USF Health including appointment, promotion, and tenure policies and procedures; provides mentorship and supervision of faculty assistance program; supervises implementation of University Policy and Regulations related to employment of faculty; participates as USF Health representative for academic affairs and collective bargaining; and is responsible for supervision of the faculty grievance process. Participates in medical student education and support activities as well as community and national advocacy related to physician professional activities.

Dr. Alicia Monroe

Vice Dean for Educational Affairs

The Vice Dean for Educational Affairs is the Chief Academic Officer of the College of Medicine (COM). Working in concert with university administration and faculty, the Vice Dean is expected to develop a strategic vision for the future of the College of Medicine educational mission and demonstrate innovative thinking and strategic use of resources. The Vice Dean will be expected to provide inspired leadership for the College and represent the school within the University and affiliated institutions on matters related to education across the continuum.

Joann Strobbe

Vice Dean for Administration, Finance and Technology

The Vice Dean for Administration, Finance and Technology is also the Chief Financial Officer and Associate Vice President for USF Health. In these roles, reporting directly to the Vice President and Dean, this position serves as the financial and administrative advisor to all USF Health and Campus leadership for USF College of Medicine, Faculty Practice Plan, and USF Health related matters. This position provides the strategic planning for all financial, human resources, technology, and administrative matters for the college and VP areas. This position formulates the strategic financial plan, the administration of the financial and technology infrastructure provides liaison roles for effective working relationships with community and state partners. This position has a deep and broad understanding of the administrative and financial functions of a complex academic health and research center. This position represents USF Health in campus and community matters regarding all financial concerns.

Richard Green, M.B.A

Executive Director, USF Physicians Group

The Executive Director manages the day-to-day business operations of the USF Physicians Group (USFPG), the multi-specialty faculty practice of the College Of Medicine. The Executive Director is responsible for staff operations, personnel, information technology, billing and collections.

Abdul S. Rao, M.D., M.A., D.Phil. Vice Dean for Research; Graduate & Post
Doctoral Affairs; Director, School of Biomedical Sciences

The Senior Associate Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies at USF Health, and Vice Dean for Research and Graduate Studies for the College of Medicine. He provides management and administrative oversight to seamlessly bridge research across USF and USF Health campuses.

Robert J. Belsole, M.D.

Vice Dean for Clinical Affairs

The Vice Dean of Clinical Affairs is responsible for all clinical matters for the College of Medicine and has authority over departmental clinical activities. The Vice Dean for Clinical Affairs acts as the Chief Operating Officer of the USF Physicians Group and in that role coordinates clinical strategies with department chairs, overseas clinical service delivery, patient satisfaction and safety, and professional relations. Chief Administrative Liaison

John Ekarius

Chief Administrative Liaison to the VP USFH and Dean COM

The Chief Administrative Liaison to the Vice President of USF Health and Dean of the College of Medicine assists the VP/Dean in establishing, managing and reformulating hospital relationships; serves as an advisor and confidant to the Vice President & Dean; coordinates, reviews and implements organizational initiatives and projects; advises the VP/Dean on intercollegiate, intercampus and constituent group relationships and performs other tasks as assigned.

Michael Hoad

Associate Vice President

Communications and Marketing

Responsible for external and internal communication of strategic direction, faculty research and achievements, as well as patient care services. Manages media relations, branding, design and community relations, in addition to communications to open the new Centers for Advanced Healthcare.

Communicates faculty accomplishments

Communicates the strategic direction of USF Health leadership
Values faculty input in the design of communication and marketing
Builds community and national recognition for faculty

Jeff Fabri

Jim McKenzie