Application Fees
- SOPHAS Application Fee = $95 to apply to one school
- USF Application Fee = $30

What is the distribution of costs?

- Deposit: The $1,000 deposit covers the initial administrative and academic costs.
- Executive Fees and Tuition: Executive fees and tuition cover tuition, catered lunches and snacks, textbooks, required reading packets, faculty salary, administration costs and expenses associated with professional programs. When you are taking the in-class weekend portion of the Executive program, our office will process your registration, order your textbooks, and provide required supplemental readings.
- Online Fees and Tuition: For the elective options in the online portion of the program, students will register themselves through OASIS, the University’s online system, and are responsible for purchasing their own textbooks and supplemental readings. The Public Health Practice office will still be here for advising and administrative support as work on your electives.

When do I pay the fees and tuition?

For your convenience, the fees and tuition are paid in five payments:

- January 11, 2008
- May 16, 2008
- August 29, 2008
- January 9, 2009
- May 15, 2009

Each of the five payments will consist of the Executive Program fee of $2250 plus the current USF tuition and fees for the courses taken.

If I transfer in a course, will my fees and tuition be reduced?

If you plan to transfer courses into the program for credit, you must apply to have the course accepted for transfer. However, since the budget is based on full participation in the cohort, you will still be responsible for paying Executive Program fees.
