Florida Hospital Tampa and USF Health Service Corps

When: July 12th, 7 am – 1:30 pm (students need to arrive by 6 am please)

Where: Florida Hospital Pepin Heart Institute

What: Assisting with health screenings for the Dr. Oz show

Volunteers needed:

(25) Medical students in class of 2013 to assist with health consults
(25) Medical students in classes of 2015 or 2014 and nursing students to assist with health screenings
(50) Additional USF Health students to assist with ‘meet and greet’, registration, data entry and other important non-clinical activities.

(NOTE- Students can NOT miss clinical or academic class requirements to participate in this event or any other USF Health Service Corps events)

Interested students can sign up with Joan Rogers at (813) 971-6000 ext. 51372 or via email at Joan.Rogers@ahss.org and copy in ekent@health.usf.edu. Please note “Volunteer” in the subject line of your email and specify your academic program and year/semester of graduation. Student volunteers will be signed up on a first come, first served basis. Volunteers are expected to participate in a one-hour training session on July 11th. More information will be provided with details on training when you receive an email confirming your volunteer spot.

Benefits of participation include the opportunity to: contribute to the Dr. Oz television show ("The 15-Minute Physical"); provide health screenings for 1000 people; enjoy a delicious breakfast and lunch; and truly make a positive difference while having fun! Thank you!
