

Guiding Principles of Educational Value Unit Initiative

- Support teaching and student learning outcomes.
- Encourage and support faculty in their roles.
- Develop a comprehensive educational model that will acknowledge faculty contributions to the educational programs and allocate resources to support educational activities.
- Recommend a methodology for the allocation of State resources to support educational activities.
- Provide transparent data to chairs to support productivity across missions.
- Recognize excellence in teaching and curricular innovation.
- Provide data to support APT process.