

Charity L. Lane, MS, MA, CPT, FNS appointed as Project Manager of Lincoln Endowed Chair Research Program

April 8, 2016

Charity L. Lane, MS, MA, CPT, FNS was recently appointed as Project Manager for the research program of the Lincoln Endowed Chair in Biomechanical & Chiropractic Research at the University of South Florida. Charity holds a Master of Science degree in Exercise and Nutrition Science from the University of Tampa, and a Master of Arts degree Human Relations from the University of Oklahoma. She is also a Certified Personal Trainer (CPT) and Fitness Nutrition Specialist (FNS).

In her leadership role for the program, Charity brings a new dimension and unparalleled experience in areas targeted for program growth, such as wellness and fitness in high-risk populations. She is founder and CEO of an online and in-person training company providing a whole person wellness approach. She has over 10 years' experience in the fitness industry working with professional athletes, fitness competitors, and the general population, and is actively engaged in wellness research and the fitness industry at the local and national levels.