

Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome (NAS) Initiative Quarterly Data Collection Form

NAS education bundle compliance for nurses and providers

Numerator: # of nurses who received education on EACH topic of the NAS education bundle to date
 Denominator: Total # of nurses who care for NAS infants to date

Numerator: # of advance practice nurses (ARNPs, PAs), and physicians who received education on EACH topic of the NAS education bundle to date
 Denominator: Total # of advanced practice nurses (ANRPs, PAs) and physicians who care for NAS infants to date
 Exclusion: Obstetric providers

Please report the cumulative percent of nurses and providers who received education on each of the following topics of the NAS education bundle to date:

	Nurses	ARNPs, PAs and Physicians
Trauma-informed care	_____ %	_____ %
Psychology of addiction	_____ %	_____ %
Motivational interviewing	_____ %	_____ %
NAS signs, scoring, and nonpharmacologic techniques	_____ %	_____ %

Inter-rater reliability with scoring tool

Numerator: # of current nurses who have demonstrated ≥90% inter-rater reliability with your institution's NAS scoring tool
 Denominator: Total # of current nurses caring for NAS infants to date
 Exclusions: institution decides which nurses to exclude

Cumulative percent of current nurses who have demonstrated ≥90% inter-rater reliability with your institution's NAS scoring tool	_____ %
---	---------

Challenges and Opportunities

What challenges or barriers have you encountered that impact the NAS initiative?
What new process has your hospital implemented that has been helpful in the management of NAS infants?
What are you working on during the next quarter?
What can FPQC and our partners do that could be helpful?	