

College of Medicine

Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology

RESIDENT RESEARCH DAY

Friday, June 18, 2010

1-5 p.m.

The William C. MacInnes Auditorium

Second Floor

Tampa General Hospital

Visiting Professor

Daniel Clarke-Pearson, M.D.

Professor and Chairman

Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology

University of North Carolina

College of Medicine

Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Resident Research Day
June 18, 2010
Program

Time	Topic	Speaker
	Moderator: Catherine Lynch, M.D.
1:00-1:15	Cesarean delivery rates in diabetic primigravidas based on third trimester hemoglobin A1c.	Pam Twitty, M.D.
1:15-1:30	Incidence and Outcome of Vascular Injury during Pelvic and Periaortic Lymphadenectomy	Siobhan Bertolino, M.D.
1:30-1:45	Laparoscopic Removal of IUD's A Retrospective Review	Dawn Palaszewski, M.D.
1:45-2:00	Unexplained Third Trimester Bleeding: outcomes and treatment recommendations	Hillary Kufahl, M.D.
2:00-2:15	Inhibin and Fertility over the age of 35	Quyen Nguyen, M.D.
2:15-2:30	BREAK
	Moderator: J.K. Williams, M.D.
2:30-2:45	Previous Cesarean Delivery Surgical Technique and Risk of Placenta Previa and Cesarean Hysterectomy	Karen Matta-Toomey, M.D.
2:45-3:00	The radiographic location and trajectory of the third sacral foramen during placement of a sacral neuromodulation lead	Mona McCullough, M.D.
3:00-3:15	Estimated Fetal Weight in the Super-Morbidly Obese. Can we counsel them the same?	Jeanmarie Texier, M.D.
3:15-3:30	Variations of Umbilical Anatomy as relates to Laproscopic Entry	Brian Barrow, M.D.
3:30-3:45	BREAK
	Moderator: Mitchel Hoffman, M.D.
3:45-5:00	Visiting Professor Lecture: "Prevention of Venous Thromboembolism in Gynecologic Surgery"	Daniel Clarke-Pearson, M.D. Professor and Chairman University of North Carolina COM