

DINNER LECTURE & AWARD PRESENTATION

MARCH 19, 2015

5:30 PM—9:00 PM

UNIVERSITY CLUB OF TAMPA

$40 PER PERSON

DINNER, DESSERT &
COFFEE
CASH BAR

ALTERNATIVE ENERGY SOURCES

How Can We Influence Change

Open to the public, this dinner program highlights ways in which we can convert all 50 states to wind, water, and solar power

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

USF College of Public Health Dean's Lecture

Roadmaps for Transitioning all 50 US States to Wind, Water and Solar Power for all Purposes

Dr. Mark Jacobson is Director of the Atmosphere/Energy Program and Professor Of Civil and Environmental Engineering at Stanford University. He is well known for his Work on the climate and health impacts of Aerosols, and on the technology, practicality and benefits of renewable energy resources.

Mark Jacobson, PhD
Director of the Atmosphere/Energy

INFO & REGISTRATION \(click here\)

Marybeth Dunn: 813-444-2750

Co-Sponsors: PSR/Florida is a non profit organization whose vision is a healthy, just and peaceful world for present and future generation. USF Health is committed to improve the full spectrum of health, from the environment, to the community, to the individual.

PSR/Florida is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, tax ID# 46-0985992. $12 of each registration, and all event contributions, will go to further the mission of PSR/Florida.

Presentation of the 6th ANNUAL T. TERRELL SESSUMS AWARD for Environmental Stewardship

— awarded to —

THE HONORABLE

BOB MARTINEZ

SENIOR POLICY ADVISOR,
HOLLAND AND KNIGHT, LLP

Tampa native and former Florida Governor Bob Martinez is a Senior Policy Advisor at Holland and Knight, LLP and serves on eight non-profit and corporate boards. He began his career as a Hillsborough County classroom teacher in 1957, and later became the executive director of the Hillsborough Classroom Teachers Association. In 1975, he became owner operator of the Café Sevilla Spanish Restaurant and was appointed to the Southwest Water Management District board by Florida Governor Ruben Askew.

Bob Martinez was elected Mayor of Tampa in 1979. As Mayor, he revitalized Tampa's downtown district, promoted economic development initiatives and annexed the University of South Florida and thousands of acres north of the university. In 2008 he co-chaired with Jan Platt the successful Hillsborough County referendum campaign to pass a bond issue for up to $200 million for the Environmental Lands Acquisition and Protection Program. This program was later named for Jan Platt.

Mayor Martinez was elected Governor of Florida in 1986. While Governor, he was recognized for his Preservation 2000 land acquisition program. Preservation 2000 became the largest government conservation land acquisition program in the nation.

Currently, Governor Martinez is on the board of National Retail Properties Inc., University of Tampa, Hillsborough Education Foundation, Tampa's Lowry Park Zoo, Tampa-Hillsborough Economic Development Corporation, Florida TaxWatch, President University Club of Tampa, Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce, Gubernatorial Fellows and honorary director of the Florida Council on Economic Education.

Several environmental related honors were awarded to Governor Martinez. The state of Florida named the Tallahassee Department of Environmental Protection buildings on Blair Stone Road the Bob Martinez Environmental Center, he was named the 1990 Conservationist of the Year by the National Parks and Conservation Association and the American Planning Association Florida Chapter in 2006 presented him with the Outstanding Contribution to Planning, Growth Management and Environmental Protection Award. The Hillsborough Education Foundation recognized him for Co-Chairing the Student's First Campaign that raised more than $4 million to rebuild Nature's Classroom. that serves as the environmental center for sixth grade students that attend Hillsborough public schools.

Governor Martinez received a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Tampa and a Master of Arts Degree from the University of Illinois and has received six Honorary Doctoral Degrees from Universities and Colleges.

Bob Martinez attended Tampa's Thomas Jefferson High School where he met Mary Jane Marino. They got married in 1954, and are parents to Sharon Marie and Robert Alan and grandparents to twins Emily Ida and Lydia Marie Keen, Robert Alejandro Martinez, Christine Ysabel Martinez and Frank Serafin Martinez.

In honor of T. Terrell Sessums, Esq., for years of dedicated public service, strong environmental stewardship, and leadership that has made Tampa Bay and all of Florida a better place in which to live for all.